Herewith is a copy of the proposed PATB which will substitute for the present applicant test. We are anxious to have you review and comment in order that the test itself can be finalized, printed, and implemented. We had originally set a 1 July target date for initiation of the new test but will have to slip this somewhat. We would appreciate it if D/Pers could review and comment to us by 7 June, passing by hand the attached book to Mr. whose review and comments by COB 11 June would be most helpful. If the attached is then returned to us, we will be able to complete the coordination process shortly thereafter.
